

TOGNI, LORENZO S.: THE STRUGGLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS. Juta, Kenwyn, 1994.

A useful reference book. Discusses the international history of human rights from slavery to contemporary international conventions. Devotes a special chapter to the struggle for human rights in South Africa with a series of appendices providing access to the major South African documents on human rights. More controversial is his two chapters devoted to international and South African human rights activists.