

A self-assessment can be performed by stakeholders of this work level indicating specific EA concerns. The following questions are relevant for the work level of enterprise architect:

I experience difficulty performing and/or achieving the following (Check all possibilities):

1.	Continuous professional action	✓
2.	Interaction with all stakeholders	✓
3.	Defining EA and facilitating use of a common language	✓
4.	Communication	✓
5.	Understanding business/IM/IT matters but at the same time stakeholder concerns	✓
6.	Continuously acting as mediator	✓
7.	Continuous sharing of progress and benefits	✓
8.	Coordinating diversity and change	✓
9.	Understanding organisational culture and principles	✓
10.	Showing dedication and guidance and avoiding EA governance	✓
11.	Personal strength and team leadership	✓
12.	Continuous validity checking	✓
13.	Accepting stakeholder input and involvement	✓
14.	Understanding meta models	✓
15.	Conceptualising business/IM/IT alignment	✓
16.	Analytical thinking and at the same time practical implementation	✗ 1)
17.	Showing passion	✓
18.	Accepting the EA challenge	✓
19.	Fostering engagement into EA	✓
20.	Identifying reusable information	✓
21.	Resolving conflict	✓
22.	Patience	✓
23.	Perseverance	✓
24.	Collaboration	✓
25.	Providing advice and training	✓
26.	Knowledge sharing	✓
27.	Establishing future architecture vision and definition	✓
28.	Demonstrating support	✓
29.	Maturity level differences	✓
30.	Being open-minded	✓
31.	Facilitating transformation and change	✓

1) This will make or break the process.